

Maryland Primary Care Workgroup

Mary Jo Condon, MPPA, Principal Consultant

California has officially launched its Office of Health Care Affordability which will create primary care investment targets and measure progress toward achieving them.

Delaware reports commercial health insurance carriers project compliance with its new affordability standards in 2023, including a required 8.5% investment in primary care.

Nebraska passed legislation to create a Primary Care Investment Council to analyze, spending and investment on primary care services in comparison to health outcomes.

Oklahoma Health Care Authority is transforming its Medicaid program with goals including an increased emphasis on primary care quality, expansion of value-based payment and increased investment in primary care and prevention.

Virginia Task Force on Primary Care recently released a report with an update on the state's efforts to better support its primary care community.

Primary Care Collaborative, launched a new web-based State Primary Care Investment Hub - a collection of information on state-based efforts and legislation to reorient their states' health systems towards primary care.

Questions?

Mary Jo Condon

Principal Consultant

Freedman HealthCare

mcondon@freedmanhealthcare.com

